OLD BUSINESS Cont.: The website has received about 10,000 hits, over 700 last week alone. Website is moving along well and is being looked at by various groups. Please keep providing information for the website. Also visit the website for more information and any new ideas, the website address is www.cfcpa.org

NEW BUSINESS: FCPA update- a board meeting will be held this month, the next FCPA conference will be held in Destin, Florida the 3rd week of October 2008. Bryan is still looking for vendors for the conference, if you know of any please contact him and let him know. If you have any training issues or concerns regarding the conference please let Bryan know asap. A CFCPA scholarship fund is being set up to assist a student in Criminal Justice at UCF. The winner of the scholarship will receive it at a CFCPA meeting that will be held in November. Updates will be forthcoming at the monthly meetings. Lt. Dennis Lemma of the Seminole County Sheriff's Office spoke at the meeting about "Crime Prevention after proposition 1". The information provided was very helpful and informative. Lt. Lemma stated "Departments need to reach out to its Citizens" "We need to be more excited about Crime Prevention when speaking with the Public". Lt. Lemma did an excellent job on this topic. Thank you Lt. Lemma and we hope to see you at future meetings.

ROUNDTABLE:

Orange County S.O.: Starting up new Neighborhood watch groups and planning for National Night Out.

SCSO: They are offering as many free classes to agencies as they can. If you have any ideas on any future classes please let Margret from Seminole County know and they will see what they can do.

Apopka PD: Officer Popp is the new Crime Prevention Officer and has just completed all his classes.
